

Pupils Rights

Your rights as a pupil at Broom Cottages

You have a right to a challenging, rewarding curriculum.

You have a right to have your achievements praised.

You have the right for your development to be assessed.

You have a right to be treated with respect.

You have the right to be recognised as a unique individual.

You have the right to support and help when you need it.

You have the right to enjoy your time at Broom Cottages.

You have the right to give an opinion before decisions are made.

You have the right to be protected from physical or emotional harm.