

Geography – KS3 Curriculum Overview

Term	KS3 Curriculum
Autumn	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Human / physical geography</li><li>• Map Skills – Locational Geography</li><li>• Earth's crust &amp; tectonic activity</li><li>• Understanding and using maps</li><li>• Weather and Climate:</li><li>• Understanding continents, countries, and regions around the world</li><li>• Introduction to global issues such as climate change, deforestation, and population growth.</li></ul>
Spring	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Overview of the UK's physical features, such as mountains, rivers, and coastlines.</li><li>• Urban vs. rural areas: land use, population distribution, and the challenges facing different regions.</li><li>• The impact of human activities on the environment, including pollution, conservation, and sustainable development.</li><li>• Understanding continents, countries, and regions around the world.</li><li>• Introduction to global issues such as climate change, deforestation, and population growth.</li></ul>
Summer	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Introduction to global environmental issues: climate change, deforestation, and pollution.</li><li>• Case studies of contrasting countries: developing vs. developed.</li><li>• Types of settlements: rural, urban, suburban.</li><li>• Land use patterns in different areas.</li><li>• Urbanization and its impact on environments and communities.</li><li>• Sustainable development and planning.</li><li>• Volcanoes, Earthquakes, and the Earth's Crust</li></ul>